FIRST NATIONS TEXTILE BRAND

My name is Jedess Hudson, I'm a descendant of the Ewamian and Western Yalanji people of North Queensland.

My art practice is deeply inspired by my traditional homelands, drawing from the land, seasons, bush tucker, flora, and fauna.

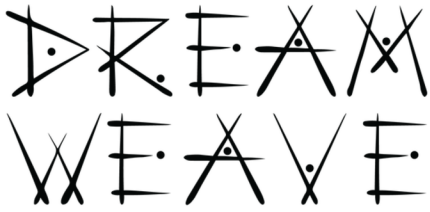

Growing up, I was taught to be keenly aware of nature and the landscape, a lesson that continues to influence my creative journey today.

Dreamweave is a 100% Aboriginal-owned business with a mission to celebrate the rich and diverse artistic output of First Nations art.

Founded by Jedess Hudson, Dreamweave stands as a testament to the creative brilliance of Australia's Indigenous communities.

This unique venture is dedicated to creating contemporary First Nations designs that draws inspiration from the breathtaking landscapes that define Australia.
